THE NEWEST AND BEST PATENT CRINOLINE YET INVENTED.

SPRING SKIRT.

SOLD BY E. & T. FAIRBANKS & CO.,

ST. JOHNSBURY, VT. Persons wishing for extra sizes can be furnish ed by leaving their orders with them. This invention entirely dispenses with the old and disagreeable manner of fastening by gum. glue and rivets, and consists of a new and useful manner of securing the tapes and wires together by means of braid passing under and through the tape and through and round the covering of the wire, thereby forming a knot, rendering it the most perfect fastening yet discovered. The wire used is made from the best Refined Watch Spring Steel, and by the peculiar manner of rolling produces the necessary flexibility without sacrificing any of the strength which it is well known a single bar has over a plurality of bars covering the same surface.

The covering of the wire used in this skirt is a fine double thread cotton yarn. the tape a twoinch extra heavy solid edge, the pads or cover-ings of the ends of the bustle springs are the fin-est enamelled kid; and with our new application for lacing the fronts, rendering the bustle springs when worn the same as a whole or continued apring, thereby keeping the front of the skirt fit-ting closely and neatly to the form. The pleasure and comfort to a lady wearing this skirt will be experienced particularly in Railroad Cars, Concert Halls, Church Pews, or any crowded assemblies. This skirt when worn can be compressed into as small a space as any ordinary house dress, without inconvenience. A lady who has worn one of our Flexible LARGEST, CHEAPEST Spring Skirts would not willingly dispense with

We claim that for superiority of materials it is not excelled, and for beauty of shape and durability it has no equal. After a careful and thorough examination, the Bon Ton Patent Flexible Spring Skirts are now being adopted and sold by many of the leading houses throughout the country, smeng others that of A. T. Stewart & Co., New York; Chandler & Co., Boston; Field, Palmer & Leiter, Chicago.

MYRA.

Did you know Myra, she that died, The household Joy, the village pride, With soft blue eyes and golden hair-Myra, the fairest of the fair At eve in rosy health she slept, Ere morn above her corpse we wept How on our household fell the blow, How walled the village in its woe;. And when we laid her from our sight Deep in the grave's perpetual night All that of her on earth remained Was one poor image dim and stained— A picture made in earlier years, Now the last solace of our tears, Ah, day by day we saw it fade, And none knew how it might be stayed, Until we came, in our despair, ToGAGE, and left our treasure there. We gleaned no comfort from his eye, His words were simply "I wilt try." And so almost of hope bereft Our treasure in his care we left. We came again—behold the change ! How wonderful, how passing strange For now in lines that cannot fade, in soft harmonious light and shade, Wrought by the painter's patient will. The picture grew beneath his skill, Until the face that on us beams. The fiving face of Myra stems. The soft bine eyes, the wavy hair, Just tossed and tangled by the air, All seems too real to be aught But living Myra to us brought. Oh, matchiess skill, oh, wondrous art, That can so much of Joy ampart. Oh, ye who some dim picture own Of some dear friend now dead and gone Ye who have wept that such is ali Ye have their likeness to recall, Go as we went when sore distressed,
